REGISTRATION ACT - [REDACTED]

Synopsis:

[REDACTED] Applied Systems, Inc., Vienna, Virginia, advised his firm sold various pieces of night vision equipment to Leigh Marsland, Inc. (LMI), Syracuse, N. Y., a subsidiary of Marsland Engineering, Inc. (MEI), Ontario, Canada. [REDACTED] considered the sale a domestic transaction; therefore, he did not attempt to obtain a U. S. Department of State export license. [REDACTED] admitted accompanying the night vision equipment to MEI for installation and testing purposes. AUSA [REDACTED] U. S. Attorney's Office, Washington, D. C., advised that strong consideration is being given to seeking indictments against TERPIL and WILSON for violations under the Foreign Agents Registration Act and D. C. Code 22-105a and 22-107.

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI

FROM : K/Myd SAC, ALEXANDRIA [] (P)

SUBJECT: W FRANCIS EDWARD TERPIL, aka;
EDWIN PAUL WILSON
RA - []
(OO: ALEXANDRIA)

DATE: 1/30/79

b3
b6 b7C
b7E

During January, February and March, 1978, AUSA [] Washington, D. C., called nine witnesses before the investigative grand jury for testimony concerning captioned case. Based on the results of this grand jury testimony and previous Bureau investigation, AUSA [] contemplated seeking an indictment against subject during May, 1978.

b6
b7C

From approximately mid May, 1978 through mid September, 1978, AUSA [] time was completely dominated by the fast breaking ORLANDO LETELIER murder case. Due to the high priority of the LETELIER investigation, captioned case was placed in a hold status.

b6
b7C

On 9/25/78, AUSA [] advised he plans to call several additional individuals before the investigative grand jury before seeking an indictment in captioned matter. AUSA [] stated that he hopes to have a true bill returned against subject before the beginning of the LETELIER murder trial.

b6
b7C

The first additional individual to be called before the investigative grand jury is scheduled to testify [] and once the case agent has had the opportunity to review investigation with AUSA [], Bureau will be appropriately advised of status.

b3
b6
b7C

It is noted that since the latter part of September and continuing until this date, AUSA [] time has been devoted exclusively to the LETELIER investigation (CHILBOM).

City to Agents 10,000 Guns

By CHARLES KAISER

Timecase bombs, letter bombs, grenades, poison darts, dozens of firearms and scores of documents were seized over the weekend in simultaneous raids in New York City, Nutley, N.J., and Crewe, England, and criminal charges were filed against two men described by the Manhattan District Attorney as major international gunrunners.

Two undercover detectives convinced the alleged gunrunners that they were actually Latin American revolutionaries, paid the men $56,000 as a deposit for a $2 million sale of 10,000 machine guns, and then arrested them Saturday at the New York Hilton Hotel, according to the District Attorney, Robert M. Morgenthau, who conducted the investigation.

Electronics Concerns Raided

As the arrests were made, agents of New Scotland Yard raided a building in Crewe — owned by one of the suspects arrested at the Hilton — seized documents and took several persons into custody.

At the same time, agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and officers of the New York City Police Department's bomb section — whose aid was sought by the F.B.I. — raided the Nutley offices of an electronics concern on a Federal warrant and recovered bombs, booby traps and firearms.

Frank Edward Terpil, one of the men arrested Saturday morning at the Hilton, was described at his arraignment yesterday as a former agent of the Central Intelligence Agency who had provided arms to Libya, had trained terrorists, had acted as an adviser to Idi Amin, the deposed Uganda dictator, and had sold at least $3.2 million in weapons to the Ugandans.

Mr. Terpil's alleged co-conspirator, George Gregory Korkala, drives an automobile with diplomatic plates registered to the Ugandan Mission to the United Nations. He was identified as the owner of the Amstec Corporation, the Nutley electronics concern raided by the F.B.I.

A third man, John Dutcher, whom Mr. Morgenthau called "a self-proclaimed assassin," was also arrested at the Hilton and held as a material witness.

Judge Robert M. Maft of Criminal Court remanded all three men without bail. Matthew Crosson, an assistant district attorney who conducted the investigation with James Kinder and Seth Rosenber, refused to say, for "security reasons," where the suspects were being held. Mr. Terpil and Mr. Korkala face a maximum of 25 years in prison if they are convicted of all the charges against them.

Mr. Terpil is 43 years old and lives in Melman, Va. Mr. Morgenthau said he was "unfavorably discharged" from the C.I.A. in 1971. A spokesman for the C.I.A. in Washington declined to comment on whether Mr. Terpil was a former agency employee.

A spokesman for the Uganda Mission in New York confirmed that Mr. Terpil had been "very close" to Mr. Amin.

The car seized by the police from Mr. Korkala, bearing license plate number DPL 680, belonged to Abdul Murte, a former second secretary in the mission here who was close to Mr. Amin and who fled the mission last May. The spokesman said he was unaware of Mr. Murte's whereabouts.

The undercover agents posed as terrorists representing an unspecified Caribbean movement. One of them pretended he spoke no English, and both of them traveled to England to convince the alleged gunrunners of their sincerity.

First, the gunrunners allegedly sold the undercover men a Browning automatic pistol, a Luger automatic pistol, and a .32-caliber long rifle detectives described as "especially designed" for assassinations.

On Saturday, they signed a contract promising delivery of 10,000 machine guns for a total of $2 million in return for the $56,000 down payment. Then they were arrested.

Investigators from Scotland Yard determined that Mr. Terpil purchased the Hunters Lodge Hotel in Crewe in 1978 for slightly more than $250,000 and used it as a lodge for his confederates.

It was the Hunters Lodge Hotel that was raided by Scotland Yard investigators Saturday. Reached at the Crewe police station last night, a man who would identify himself only as Sergeant Jackson said, "I don't know anything about the job — except that there was one."

One hundred twelve latent fingerprints, eleven of which are from the side and tip areas of the fingers, nine latent palm prints and two latent impressions, which are either fingerprints or palm prints, of value were developed on the folder and the twelve-page document.

Two latent prints developed on a cream colored folder bearing the hand printed notation "MARCH," have been identified as the right thumb and the left index finger impressions of Francis Edward Terpil, born 11/2/39, FBI #198717E.

Eleven latent fingerprints and one latent impression were compared with the comparable areas of the fingerprints of Terpil and the fingerprints of Edwin Paul Wilson, born 5/3/28, but no identification was effected. Major case prints are needed for conclusive comparisons.
